NO. 486.

POMP TO ATTEND ROYAL OBSEQUIES

Great Ceremonial Is Planned for Assassins' Victims.

MORE CABINET CHANGES

Speculation Over Pretender's Departure from Rome.

Ex-Prime Minister Franco Denies Responsibility for Assassination of Portugal's King and Crown Prince, Accused by His Queen-Tribute to 12-Masons Will Honor Zebulon M. Pike. Amelie in British Parliament-Socialist Sympathy with Movement, Lisbon, Feb. 4.-Another alteration has been made in the cabinet.

Senhor Telles has been selected for minister of war, Senhor Espregueira for minister of mance, and Senhor Magalhaes for minister of public works,

The palace chapel is decorated for the lying in state of the bodies of King Carlos upper Virginia coast. and Crown Prince Luiz. The ceremony floor will be carpeted with black. A Bange, of the Jefferson, who spent more crape streamers will be carried therefrom Cottins to Repose in Choir.

Immense chased silver candelabra will stand on the altar, which will be nearly hidden in draperies. Two inclined planes draped with black and gold, have been placed in the center of the choir side by side to receive the coffins, Seven colossal gold candelabra stand on each side, while others of the same size have been placed along the nave.

· An immense cross draped in black will be placed at the head of the coffins. Queen Amelie and ex-Queen Maria Pia continued their vigil beside the bodies last night, only leaving occasionally for a short rest on a sofa.

King Manuel's Wounds Heal.

London, Feb. 4.-An official message to the Portuguese legation to-day anneunces that King Manuel has recovered from the slight wounds he received when his father and brother were assassinated

The Lisbon correspondent of the Express says he interviewed ex-Prime Minister Franco Tuesday. The former min ister desired to make it clear that he was not answerable for the murders. He said:

"I am not responsible. The perpetrators were enemies of society, not belong-

The correspondent adds that Senor Franco's repudiation has increased significance in view of the sharp encounter between himself and Queen Amelie. The latter opposed Senor Franco's policy, and did her utmost to terminate his regime. Accused by His Queen.

Senhor Franco entered the death room Queen was sitting between the bodies, six pledged votes to start with She rose and, pointing to them, exclaimed in a tone of bitter reproach:

"Behold your work." It is stated that Senhor Franco hung his head and left the room without speak-

In proposing in the House of Lords to-day, a resolution of sympathy with by harmony and enthusiasm. the bereaved royal family, Lord Ripon paid tribute to Queen Amelie's courage, not only in trying to shield her son from assassins, but in "how she arose from her sorrow and from the corpses of her husband and son, and walked forth, calm and noble, to take her place in the council of her country. Franco Visits Palace.

The Lisbon correspondent of the Tele-The correspondent sends a version of the tragedy given to him by the Count of the State convention.

San Luis, the Spanish Minister, who was close by at the time of the murders.

had been ascertained. The Queen, desolate and sobbing, looked now to the dead and now to her wounded son Manuel, whom she pressed to her heart. Her majesty said: "You are wounded. You are suffer-

"Manuel replied with extraordinary

"'No, mother; no, I am not won I'm not suffering from my arm. I only suffer from my misfortune. "As he uttered these words he made bullet going through his arm." King Manuel Unhappy,

The minister's wife, who accompanied her husband to the palace the next day, described her meeting with King Man-

"The new King was pale through loss of blood and violent emotions. He came toward me with his left hand outstretched, as his right arm was in a sling. I bowed to him, taking his left hand. He said: "'I am unhappy. Eevrything that has occurred in these last hours seems but a terrible nightmare. Yesterday I had my ness. To-day I have neither one nor th the tragic reality. I am always with those Thirty-seven Saved from Burning sanguinary scenes under my eyes as if something were haunting me. Destination Causes Speculation.

throne, who was staying at Viareggio, ton light. has started suddenly for the East. It is At her present rate she will arrive in stated he is going to Greece.

There are various rumors based on his after midnight. The White Star agency departure, one alleging that, despite his here has received no word concerning the denunciation of the murders and his re- details of the St. Cuthbert disaster, pudiation of any desire to take advantage

Ticket Sale Opens To-Day T. Arthur Smith's, 1411 F st., for Ed-rd Howard Griggs' course of lectures

WEATHER FORECAST.

For the District of Columbia and Maryland-Snow and warmer to-day. To-morrow, snow or rain; increasing northeast to east winds.

HERALD NEWS SUMMARY.

TELEGRAPHIC.

-Bryan Flays Wall Street Gamblers. -Roosevelt's Cousin in Runaway. -Brooklyn Banker Eludes Detectives.

Preparing for Royal Funeral. -Battle Fleet Crew Enjoys Life. -New York Woman Invents Air Ship

-Charity Ball in New York.

i-More facts in the G. P. O. Scandal, -Army Officer's Wife in Runaway,

-Memorial Services for Dr. Stafford. -President Gives Orders to Navy Yard

-Hawalians Given Dinner at Raleigh. Illinois Association in Reunion. 12-Choir Whistles at Church Revival,

THREE PERISH IN CRASH.

Old Dominion Liner Runs Down Schooner in Storm,

New York, Feb. 4.-Plunging through Norfolk, cut down the old three-master will be marked with the greatest pomp. port, Me., and two of the crew of the Charles A. Stillings is paid $5,500 each schooner lost their lives. Capt. Joseph year to guard, L. Rietta and the three other survivors black velvet, fringed with silver and cloth of gold embroidered in black. The cloth of gold embroidered in black. The sistent pluck of Second Officer Frederick Mount Clympus, evidently, which is so facsimile of the royal crown will be than an hour in the freezing sea and on things that concern the getting of con suspended in front of the choir, and long the maintop of the half-submerged stern. tracts with the Government Printing Of The Jefferson was in charge of the sec- fice as 52 Duane street, which is headond officer, who frankly declares he did quarters of The Audit System, and seems not see the schooner until he was so also to be the stopping place for part of

Vice President Gets 26 Delegates to Convention.

CANNON TO HAVE HIS WAY

Speaker to Be Asked to Express His supplies with government departments as linois Delegation, Which Is Promite Son Many Laps Ahead of Taft, undivided support of his own State for he would tell. the highest honor in the gift of his counat the palace shortly after the bodies all, and severally, for Mr. Fairbanks. were brought from the arsenal. The This gives Indiana's favorite son twenty-

Not more than four delegates so far has been instructed outright for Mr. Taft, The Audit System is paid, and yet he Mrs. Fenton, who is recovering from which should be good for some time to

The delegates-at-large will not be sefriends that they will also be instructed it was paying out. for him, thus giving him the solid indiana delegation. Cannon to Give Views.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 4.-Joseph G. Cannon will go to the national convention graph says Senhor Franco, with his wife, with a solid delegation behind him as favors for the selection of delegates to tain just what tack it will take next.

Roy O. West, chairman of the State Reafter the death of his father and brother gether to-day. It was decided that Mr. West should write Mr. Cannon asking Stillings be called to testify, as will Vice for his views on the selection of dele- President Raynor, of The Audit System, ways an expression of opinion.

State committee will be called together before the committee, o select the time and place for the selecprobably be held in this city,

MISS HARRIMAN IN HOSPITAL.

forts to suppress the pain caused by a Magnate's Daughter Treated in Bal-

Baltimore, Feb. 4.-Miss Carol Harriman, daughter of E. H. Harriman, who for several years has been a pupil at St. Timothy's School, at Catonsville, is nnder treatment at the Johns Hopkins Hospital and is being attended by Dr. J. M. r. Finney and Dr. Hiram Woods.

Miss Harriman has been suffering se verely from ear trouble, and it was deemed advisable to take her to the hospital. Her mother came on from New York and is at present in Baltimore. It was said this afternoon that Miss Harriman was getting along nicely.

HEROIC RESCUE AT SEA.

Steamer by Liner Cymric.

Boston, Feb. 4.-The White Star liner Cymric, carrying the rescued crew of the Rome, Feb. 4.-A newspaper states that burned steamer St. Cuthbert, was re- Raynor, Alfred, a man named Mock-an the bay about 9 p. m., and dock shortly in the New Willard Hotel. He said that a pillar of the elevated railroad.

Japanese Art Sale at Sloan's The sale of Japanese Art Goods from he Jamestown Exposition opens at the Jamestown Exposition opens for Ed-Slean's, 1467 G st., to-day at 11 a. m. lectures 3 p. m. Rooms comfortable, and s provided. Catalogues on application.

LANDIS JARS FACTS FROM AUDIT SYSTEM

Ramifications of Queer Concern Are Extensive.

EYES THE PORK BARREL

Committee Finds Close Connections with Many Companies.

Examination of Chairman Landis Shows What Bookkeeping "System" Does-J. F. Handy, President of Suffolk Company, Knows Nothing, He Says-Committee to Dig Deep with Probe-No Hearing To-day.

Not even old Briareus, he with the white tipped swells in the face of a piping ramifications of The Audit System, The hundred arms, could hope to rival the and frosty northwester, the Old Domin- Audit System Supplies Company, the ion liner Jefferson, in last night from Suffolk Distributing Company, the J. W. centerboard schooner Emelie E. Birdsall, Pratt Company, and others too numerous three hours before sunrise to-day off the to mention, all of which have evidently been concerned in the opening of the Mate Herbert M. Robinson, of Machias- "pork barrel" which Public Printer

And there is not a place this side close aboard it was impossible to avoid a the brains and all the capital of the other companies.

the Joint Committee on Printing is probing, in its investigations into the at tempted contract on the part of the Suffolk Distributing Company with the Govof paper, there runs the guiding hand of

At the head of the galaxy of men who struct in "cost, audit, and inventory" sys-Wishes Regarding Selection of II- possible - rarticularly with the Govern ment Printing Office-stands J. F. Handy ised to Him Solid-Indiana's Favor- with so many yesterday, is connected with so many concerns that he cannot keep track of Alfred's Testimony Mild.

The testimony of Frederick Alfred on Indianapolis, Feb. 4.-Charles Warren Monday was very mild in its revelations ton, U. S. A., secretary of the Army ways of his connections with all these many companies, and found at the end does not know how much Vice President Raynor, of that "system," makes a year Eighteenth street, breaking the thills and of debris. or a week. He said that he does not smashing the side of the carriage. know how much anybody employed by

Landis brought out enough facts con- called to the two women to jump,

Will Go to the Bottom.

things of a most startling nature.

Not only will Public Printer Charles A. moving vehicle.

It is understood to be the determina- rushed to the horses' heads. that it will be time well spent.

When the investigation began yesterday possible, pushed their way through here were a few newspaper men and others, in addition to R. Golden Donaldson, attorney for Handy, and Chairman Landis and his secretary, present.

Mr. Handy was the only witness, Chairman Landis conducted the whole investi- joy. gation, Mr. Donaldson asking but few questions.

occupation).

Did Not Consult Raynor,

He said that outside of being treasurer and secretary of The Audit System, he practically has no connection with it. When asked about his consultation with other persons about the $150,000 bid for paper for the Government Printing Of Smash-up in New York. fice, submitted ostensibly for the Suffolk Mock, and that was the only reason the dent. The Roosevelts live on Madison

Continued on Page 4, Column 5,

nor to Raynor about the bid he was to

Pretty Baskets of Spring

IN THE PUBLIC EYE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1908. - TWELVE PAGES.

ernment Printing Office for $150,000 worth Army Officer's Wifeand Babe in a Runaway.

Frightened Horses Dash Down Massachusetts Avenue with Mrs. C. W. in the Final Smash-up.

Fairbanks, Vice President of the United of "know nothingness," compared to that Mutual Aid Association, and her two-States, is on the face of the returns at which Handy gave yesterday morning, year-old sen, Rochesler, parrowly esing to any political group. I did every-present, the leading candidate for the amingtion led Handy through all the caped death or serious injury in a runa, moved to the hospital, were buried under avenue, near Sixteenth street, The Vice President to-day received the that Mr. Handy knew nothing-of which Mrs. Fenton and Miss Harris, a trained gutted by fire to-day. The men had been Handy, the secretary and treasurer of from the open carriage as the frightened fire was under control to wash down and trymen, when thirteen district conven- The Audit System, testified that he does horses ran down the street. The baby open up, and they were hardly at work tions in Indiana elected delegates to the not know how much that company is was left in the carriage, and was when the second and third floors gave Chicago convention and instructed them making out of its contract with the Gov-miraculously uninjured when the horses way, and all hands were precipitated to ernment Printing Office. He said that he ran the vehicle against the curbing at the ground floor and buried under piles

Returning to Her Home,

so that the Vice President has a lead said he was one of its executive officers. a serious illness, had been on a drive pipe lines and dashed into the building to Handy was the only man called to through Rock Creek Park and was retestify yesterday. He seemed not to be turning to her residence, 1220 Eighteenth worried by his woeful lack of knowledge street. The carriage was an open one, concerning the operations of his many in- drawn by a pair of spirited thoroughterests. He was merely a capitalist, he breds and driven by Lloyd Dutch, a No. 10 six months ago, is believed to said in effect, who could not trouble with young negro. As the carriage turned have been pinned under a big safe that connected with the bank. Among them lected until next April, but it is confi- the petty details of finding out how much from Sixteenth street and rounded Scott was carried from the third floor to half was Campbell. A detective has been dently expected by the Vice President's his company was making or how much Circle into Massachusetts avenue, the way between the ground floor and the watching the house at 419 Hancock street, horses took fright and ran. Dutch was cellar. Handy was on the stand about two unable to stop the animais, but managed nours, and during that time Chairman to keep them on a straight course. He cerning the connection between himself Mrs. Fenton had been so weakened by and The Audit System to drive ten com- her illness she could not trust her panies from the Government Printing strength to the extent of leaping to the visited the palace Monday and signed the Hinois' favorite son and her candidate tinued to-day, nor has any date been set Harris took the baby and Mrs. Fenton preme Court at Washington were donned Office. The investigation will not be con- street with her child in her arms. Miss' visitors' book. Senhores Da Cunha and for the Presidency. Mr. Cannon will be at which it will be resumed, owing to the made the leap. She fell, but was unin-Braucamp, republicans, also signed the given liberty to indicate the methods he fact that the committee is yet uncer- jured. Miss Harris attempted to jump, of Illinois. The court also ordered that he boarded the steamer Comanche. Then carrying the child, but in some manner little Rochester Fenton slipped from her It can be stated authoritatively, how- arms and feil into the bottom of the carpublican Committee; Charles H. Hitch, ever, that the committee is going clear riage. Miss Harris kept her feet after The minister describes the scene be- representing the Cullom and Cannon in- to the bottom of the whole strange mud- the jump and attempted to run beside tween Queen Amelle and King Manuel terests, and Gov. Deneen conferred towas unable to keep pace with the rapidly

Horses Hold Their Speed,

The horses held their speed, and as thrown out, but alighted on his feet and

tion of delegates. The convention will tion of Chairman Landis to sift the whole | The runaway had drawn a large crowd, sorry mess from the beginning to the which immediately gathered around the and, and, if it takes time, it is expected damaged vehicle. Mrs. Fenton and Miss Harris, who had followed as rapidly as ircle of spectators, trembling with anxunder the seat of the carriage, the found the infant, frightened but uninjured. He did not cry until his mothe clasped him in her arms, subbing with lating him on his recent message to Con-

After the few preliminary remarks, in Miss Harris walked to the Fenton resi- than I did, for, as you say, what we have which Handy gave his name, place of dence, a short distance from the corner residence, &c., he testified "I am really at which the horses had come to a halt, in so many different business concerns I It was announced last night by Mrs. don't know what I would call it" (his Fenton's relatives that beyond a slight nervous relapse Mrs. Fenton is none the worse for her exciting experience. The Fentons are well known in army and navy circles.

PINNED UNDER DEBRIS.

Single of the Suffolk Distributing Company, Handy said that Raynor, Alfred, a man named Mock—an employe of The Audit System in its Government Printing Office work—and Mr. Whiting were present. This took place in the New Willard Motel. He said that he took a sort of a fatherly interest in Mock, and that was the only reason the latter was present that evening.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 4.—The crown presecutor, in winding up the court martial for the surrender of Port Arthur, demanded that Gen. Stoessel and others on trial for the surrender of Port Arthur, demanded that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Smirnner in a fortress.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 4.—The crown presecutor, in winding up the court martial for the surrender of Port Arthur, demanded that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and that Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death, and the found of Gen. Stoessel, Reuss, and Fock be sentenced to death Dom Miguel, pretender to the Portuguese ported this afternoon 160 miles off Bos- employe of The Audit System in its Gov. Jean S. Rooseveit, had a narrow escape, the surrender of Port Arthur, demanded atter was present that evening.

He said that he did not talk to Mock avenue. They were on their way to the banking dept. of Union Trust Co., 15th H sts. Interest paid on all accounts, su heater when a car bore down upon them. H sts, Interest paid on all accounts, sul Neither the motorman in charge of the ject to check. Under gov't supervision. ar, nor Thomas J. Cavanaugh, the coach

A la Carte Lunch Served Daily

ar struck the rear end of the carriage taking off a wheel and jamming th wreck against the pillar. Cavanaugh was thrown to the pavement and Mr. and Mrs Roosevelt and Miss Roosevelt were pinned

The horses broke from the carriage and raced north. Policeman Frank McDonald grabbed at the trailing reins, but misse them, and as the horses slowed up t WOMEN LEAP FROM CARRIAGE dodge a car he caught one of them by the beneath the debris of the vehicle.

nd his clothes badly torn before he brought the animals to a stop. None of the Roosevelts was injured and they Fenton, Her Two-year-old Son, and scrambled to their feet as soon as the a Trained Nurse-Child Is Unburt weight of the wreckage was lifted from them and walked on over to the theater

FIREMEN FALL WITH FLOORS.

Twenty Men Buried Under Debris. One May Be Dead.

New York, Feb. 4.-Twenty firemen, collapsed resounded above the puffing of trict attorney's office. the engines and firemen dropped their Nineteen men were taken out alive and one fireman, a youngster named Thomas P. Estinton, who joined Truck Company of the Borough Bank, secured subpoenas are guilty without "really being conscious

STATE COURT WEARS ROBES.

Illinois Justices Insist Upon Observance of Decorum. Springfield, Ill., Feb. 4.-Robes like those worn by the justices of the Sucome to town with a handbag containing body else, and threw the subpoena in a shirt, clean collar, and briefs. Any old the river. clothing was good enough in the presence | The detective said that the man was of the highest court in Illinois. It will be joined soon afterward by a woman he quent, reaches a larger aggregate in propdifferent now.

freck coats.

the man who attempts to enter the room Denton hurried up to the pier and waved form of larceny, he said. The effect is gates or to secure from him in other &c., but many others who possess inter- they drew near Eighteenth street swerved in which the court is to hold its session the couple good-by. Mr. Campbell's name just the same between two men as if one esting information concerning the meth- to the curbstone. The carriage was dash- in the magnificent new temple dedicated was not on the ship's passenger list, the took the other's property and applied it Upon receipt of this information the ods in vogue in the printery, will come ed against a lamp post and the driver to-day, must leave behind him his red detective said. necktie, cream-colored trousers, yellow shoes, and red vest, else he will not get into the sacred precincts.

THANKED BY ROOSEVELT. Thomas P. Ballard Expresses President's Idea. Cleveland, Feb. 4.-In reply to a letter written by Thomas P. Ballard, of this city, to President Roosevelt, congratu-gress, the President wrote as follows : "I thank you for your letter of the 1st. Carrying the baby, Mrs. Fenton and You have expressed my thoughts better tween the years 1898 and 1906, the forthe one hand from the anarchy which follows greed and graft and on the other and hate. With high regards, believe me,

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT, DEMANDS STOESSEL'S DEATH.

Crown Prosecutor of Russia Winds Up Court Martial,

St. Petersburg, Feb. 4.-The crown pros.

There's Sure Profit as Well

y ten cents a week, delivered at dec-coated trees are door—the daily issues of The Excellent train serv Only ten cents a week, delivered at

POVERTY STRICKEN, ENDS LIFE Members of Idle Painter's Family

Asphyxlated by Gas.

New York, Feb. 4.-Max Sackman, painter out of work, his wife Celia, and their fourteen-months-old daughter Rosie were found dead in their rooms at 339 East Tenth street this afternoon. They had been killed by illuminating gas, and, in the opinion of Coroner Harburger and his physician, Dr. Lehane, they had beer dead at least forty hours when found.

The Sackman's had three second-floor rooms, and had lived in them eleven weeks. Two weeks after they took the flat at $11 a month, Sackman got out of work but he managed to pay the rent up to three weeks ago. Last week they had little food. On Saturday Tony Jarbarino, the janitor, told Sackman that the landlord had said that unless he paid the rent he would have to get out. Most of Sunday, Sackman spent in the

the same floor in the rear. Bernakoff gave Sackman a few rolls and some butter, and at 10 o'clock that night the painter went to his own rooms, saying that he hoped to get work on Monday No one saw Sackman alive after that No note was left, and Coroner Har ourger was puzzled to decide whether Mrs. Sackman had agreed to die with her husband or Sackman had turned on the gas after his wife and child had gone to cooms of Simon Bernakoff, who lives or

MINERS OBJECT TO ORDER.

Pittsburg Company Employes Balk at Smokeless Powder,

Pittsburg, Feb. 4.-Miners in the mines ghiogheny Valley are on strike because of loaded dice and marked cards-1 per cent an order to use smokeless powder. Fully legitimate and 99 per cent gambling. There 3,000 men are affected. The miners charge is no form of swindling unknown and collusion between the State mine inspec-tors and coal companies in forcing the use of smokeless powder. The coal com-pany and inspectors insist that the order is a safety measure to protect the lives of der tears the coal to pieces so that a arger percentage goes through the screen when being loaded into cars. They do not get paid for coal that passes through Under $20,000 Bond and Believed to Be in Europe.

FOILS A SUBPOENA SERVER

Arthur D. Campbell Object of Search on Part of Brooklyn Police-Eludes trict Attorney's Office,

New York, Feb. 4.—The representatives had done his work though the White House is occupied of a Brooklyn detective agency who have by a political adversary, he inspires been trying to serve a subpoena on Ar- and controls the political ideals of the thur D. Campbell, former cashier of the White House almost as he does the Borough Bank of Brooklyn, reported to- gatherings of his own party. terday on the Clyde Line steamer Comanche under a name not his own, accompanied by his wife.

Assistant District Attorney Elder, who

Referee Gets Subpoena. Brooklyn, where Campbell lived with his modern times there is a tendency to diwife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denton, for vide the latter into two classes, so that some days, but saw nothing of Campbell, now we are inclined to think of larceny saw Mr. and Mrs. Denton leave the rious larceny.

man he recognized as Campbell. Follows to New York, to New York and stayed with him when not only innocent, but patoriotic. I relawyers addressing it must appear in he handed over the subpoena, and, according to his report, the man he believed It has been customary for lawyers to was Campbell declared that he was some scale."

house, followed some time later by a believed to be Mrs. Campbell, and that erty value than stealing in violation of Lawyers must bring a wardrobe, and just before the boat sailed Mr. and Mrs. law. Inequality of taxation is merely a

> At Campbell's home it was denied tocity. Mrs. Campbell was not there either, it was said.

FISH PREPARES FIGURES.

Shows Harriman Raised Road's Operating Expenses.

ings and expenses of the Illinois Cen- goods. tral and Chicago and Alton roads bemer road being at that time under his management and the latter road under. Harriman's control.

operating expenses of the Illinois Cen-tral Central, while the increase on the Alton was 111.20 per cent; Illinois Cen. commandment "Thou shalt not steal" tral not receipts increased 75.46 per presents as clearly as it can be presented the Illinois Central increased 69.34 per state it so plainly that it can be under-cent, while it increased 37.89 per cent stood. I do not mean that any truth

J. H. Small & Sons, Florists,

Washington and New York. Niagara Falls in Winter The Frost King builds glorious palaces Niagara. The Crystal Beauties of the

GAMBLERS FLAYED IN BRYAN'S SPEECH

TWO CENTS.

"Thou Shalt Not Steal" Is Nebraskan's Text.

LARCENY IS CONDEMNED

Makes No Distinction Between Robber and Rich Man.

Declares It Just as Wrong for Corporations, Aided by Law, to Unlawfully Acquire Money as for Highwaymen to Hold Up Lone Citizen-Legislation Often Used to Further Improper Schemes,

New York, Feb. 4.-William Jennings Bryan, speaking before the Civic Forum at Carnegie Hall to-night, attacked in turn monopolists, stock exchange gambing, and predatory wealth. The stock exchange came in for the nardest pounding. Mr. Bryan characterof the Pittsburg Coal Company of You- ized the game there as being played with prise that the 80,000,000 of people in this country do not rise in their honest wrath and drive these New York Stock Exchange gamblers either into honesty or > out of the country. Measured by the number of suicides caused, Monte Carlo is an innocent pleasure resort compared with the New York Stock Exchange, and when it comes to he amount of money changing hands and the effect on other people, the noorious island gambling resort is still

On Par with Highwayman,

Mr. Bryan put the monopolist on the ar with the highwayman who points he revolver at his victim's head and says: "Money or your life," and the lawyer who helps him to keep out of jail is no better than the man who ids the highwayman to escape.

Carnegie Hall was well filled, but he audience was far from being of he regular Bryan type. There was only ne real demonstration and that was Service at the Docks-Detective when Bryan called upon the country Reports Lack of Success to the Dis- to march 80,000,000 strong against the stock exchange

Edward M. Shephard presided. He described Mr. Bryan as a man who introduction, and took up the cudgels for his friend, Mr. Roosevelt, as an independent thinker.

Glad of Chance to Speak Mr. Bryan began by expressing his aphas been conducting the Brooklyn bank preciation of the opportunity to present cases, said to-night he would make a in this "great center of trade and thorough inquiry to-morrow to find out finance" the hacken-eyed subject of "larwhy a man under $20,000 bail, whose trial ceny." He did not select this subject was likely to come up at any time, should with any intention of presenting an ar-The report of the crash as the floors leave the city without notifying the dising to assume that those who listened to him agreed that the commandment against it should be obeyed. It was his Some days ago Walter Shaw Brewster, purpose rather to make some applicathe referee who has been inquiring into tions of the commandment to present conthe conduct of the officers and directors ditions, for he was satisfied that many > committing any wrong." Mr. Bryan was aware that law writers have divided larceny into two classespetit larceny and grand larceny. But in The detective reported to-night that he as petit larceny, grand larceny, and glo-

> "By glorious larceny I do not refer to the policy which nations have indulged in of taking the property of other nations The detective said he followed Campbell by force-an act sometimes described as ernable at the present day, to regard stealing upon a large scale as less rep-

Law's Aid in Operations, In Mr. Bryan's opinion, stealing through the operation of the law, if not so freto his own use. The fact that the government, acting as a collector, took the night that he had sailed away, although $5 from the man who is everburdened and it was admitted that he was out of the gave it to the man who is underburdened does not change the character of the transaction. Through monetary legisla-

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Stuyvesant Fish taken, but also because of the respecthas prepared a statement of the earn- ability of those who received the stolen Mr. Bryan's Speech,

The subject of private monopoly, ac-illustration of larceny, and here it is that larceny rises to its glorious propor-ording to the speaker, furnishes anoth lows: Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen I appreciate the opportunity which the According to his figures, there was in this great center of trade and finance an increase of 95.32 per cent in the a subject which however hackneyed it cent, while the Alton increase was 41.22 per cent, and the net income on service that one can render a truth is to stance, you may say to a man that it is wrong to steal and he replies: "Oh, I Continued on Page 9, Column 1, ward Howard Griggs' course of lectures on Shakespeare.

In full. Mr. Bryan's speech was as foltrain service via the Pennsyl-